

Parents' Responsibilities

I/We acknowledge that parents are the primary educators of children. I/We have a vital role to play in supporting our children in their lives and learning at school.

I/We will

- ❖ see that my child attends school regularly and arrives and leaves punctually
- ❖ inform the school if there are any personal or health issues that may affect my child's work or behaviour
- ❖ ensure that my child is suitably equipped with PE kit and is wearing school uniform
- ❖ contact the school to inform them of my child's absence and the reasons for that absence before 9.15 am
- ❖ give my child the opportunity and the right conditions for completing home learning (which can take a variety of formats including formal and more open ended tasks) – helping if necessary
- ❖ encourage my child to do his/her best
- ❖ encourage my child to adopt an attitude of respect for everyone
- ❖ teach my child to appreciate that people are different and that these differences should be respected and accepted
- ❖ support the school in promoting positive behaviour
- ❖ attend Parents' Evenings and discussions about my child
- ❖ consult the school if there are any issues causing concern, conduct those discussions in an open but respectful manner and not prejudice those discussions by posting on social networks

Child's Responsibilities

I know that I am a special person with talents and the ability to learn. I know that it is my responsibility to use my talents well and make the most of my time at school.

I will

- ❖ attend school regularly and on time
- ❖ wear my uniform proudly
- ❖ bring the equipment I need
- ❖ take care of my school and the equipment in it
- ❖ do all my work (in class and at home) as well as I possibly can
- ❖ respect everyone and keep the school rules
- ❖ appreciate that people can be different and show respect for those differences
- ❖ behave sensibly and safely at all times

School's Responsibilities

We acknowledge that the school has a responsibility to the pupils of this school and their families. We have a duty to ensure that they maximise their potential within our school community.

We will

- ❖ provide a safe and stimulating environment in which your child and your family are welcome
- ❖ ensure that your child is valued as an individual
- ❖ teach children that people can be different and that these differences should be accepted and respected
- ❖ do our utmost to provide the best education we can so that your child makes good progress in his/her academic, spiritual and moral development
- ❖ provide you with information about the progress of your child and the development of the school so that we can work together for the benefit of the child
- ❖ challenge your child to strive for excellence in everything he/she does
- ❖ share and celebrate with you the achievements of your child
- ❖ inform you of any concerns about the behaviour, work and general well being of your child and conduct those discussions in an open but respectful manner
- ❖ send home an annual written report and meet with you to discuss your child's progress
- ❖ keep you informed about school activities through regular newsletters and invitations to school events
